Amy only wanted
one thing.
She did not want dolls.
She did not want toys.
She wanted an airplane.

Amy learned about airplanes and dreamed about airplanes.
She even acted like an airplane!

"I'm sorry, Amy,"
said her mother.
"We can't buy an airplane."
Amy nodded.

"I'm sorry, Amy," said her father. "We can't buy an airplane." Amy nodded.

"Look, Amy!"
said Amy's sister.
"We can make an airplane!"
Amy smiled.

paper

🔊 Amy's sister Jayla
got some paper.
"Fold the paper
like this," said Jayla.
"Then like that."

Amy tried to fold the paper like this.
Then she tried to fold
the paper like that.
Amy tried and tried.

But Amy's paper did not look like Jayla's.
"Try again," said Jayla.
Amy did a new fold...
and a new fold...

...and she made an airplane!
"Come on, Jayla!"
Amy said.
"Let's go fly!"
